Are you an international talent interested in internationalization and export? Perhaps you have a certificate of a degree recognition and identification or you have completed a study period in which your career and professional qualifications have been assessed? You can still be a degree student or you have completed your studies either in Finland or abroad.

Join us for Recruiting and Matching Morning to meet employers that are planning of going international and exploring new markets. A kick start to your new career with them might be just behind the corner!

First companies will present themselves and their needs for employees after which you will have a chance to continue the discussion further with them. Do not forget to take your CV and contact information along!

The event is free of charge. Welcome!

Please register to the event by 28th February 2018
